GINSENG.

THE subscriber wishes to purchase 20,000lbs. of good GINSENG, well washed, dried and sifted. Now is the time to gather it; and from the great quantities in the vicinity of Pittsburgh and the adjoining counties, and the easy manner in which it is collected, no greater inducements to honest and laudable industry has been offered. The Farmer who has a surplus of hands, perhaps too tender for more laborious work; the needy families who have to depend on the caprices of fortune for a temporary subsistence, ought now to leave their less profitable work and gather Ginseng, which will bring the Cash, necessaries of life, or wearing apparel. No matter how small the quantity of Ginseng, so that it is well washed, dried and sifted, and sound roots. The subscriber will attend to it. Those wishing to supply larger quantities, are informed that it must be in the above condition, and packed in tight casks of 150 to 200lbs each, and to be delivered in the course of the ensuing fall, to the subscriber, in Pittsburgh. Letters on this subject immediately attended to.

FROM ENGLAND.

By the ship Mount Vernon, capt. Rawson, 48 days from Liverpool.

Supplement to the London Gazette, Downing Street, July 5.

A despatch of which the following is a copy was last night received, addressed to Earl Bathurst, by his grace the duke of Wellington, dated Orville, June 29, 1815.

MY LORD—Being aware of the anxiety existing in England to receive the returns of killed and wounded in the late actions, I now send lists of the officers, and expect to be able to send this evening returns of the non-commissioned officers and soldiers. The amount of non-commissioned officers and soldiers, British and Hanoverian, killed, wounded and missing is between 12 and 13,000.

Your Lordship will see in the enclosed lists the names of some of the most valuable officers lost to his majesty's service. Among them I cannot avoid to mention Col. CAMERON of the 62d, and Col. Sir H. ELLIS of the 92d regts. to whose conduct I have frequently drawn your lordship's attention, and who at last fell distinguishing themselves at the head of the brave troops which they commanded.

Notwithstanding the glory of the occasion, it is impossible not to lament such men, both on account of the public and friends,

I have the honor to be, &c.

WELLINGTON.

Letters have been received from Havre, which state positively, that Bonaparte had embarked near that port in a schr. destined, it is supposed, for America.

Despatches were on Saturday brought from lord Stewart at Vienna, by Groeswood, the messenger who left that capital on the 21st, and Ratisbon on the 16th. The Austrian army was in full march to join the duke of Wellington. Gresswood met lord Castlereagh on the road, about 3 miles from Rochester, to whom he gave all the despatches which were intended for his lordship.

New York, August 22.

LATE AND IMPORTANT FROM ENGLAND & FRANCE.

Arrived this day at 1 o'clock, the cartel ship Woodruff-Sims, capt. JONES, of Philadelphia, in 38 days from Plymouth, (Eng.) with about 350 Americans from Dartmoor.

We learn by this arrival that Mr. GALLATIN left London on the 6th July for Liverpool, at which port he intended to embark within a few days for the U. S.

Com. BARNEY had arrived out with despatches from our government.

It was reported that the U. S. frigate Congress, capt. MORRIS, with Dr. EUSTIS on board, had passed up the Channel.

To the politeness of a friend, we are indebted for London dates to the 12th of July, and Paris dates the 9th. Very important extracts will be found below.

The duke of WELLINGTON and field marshal BLUCHER, at the head of the allied army, entered Paris on the 7th July: LOUIS XVIII. king of France, arrived at his capital on the 8th; and the arrival of the Emperors of Russia and Austria was expected on the same evening. Lord CASTLEREAGH also arrived on the 8th.

Of BONAPARTE, we have no certain intelligence. The most plausible rumor respecting him, is, that he sailed from Rochefort in a French frigate on the 2d July.

The Provisional Government or Commission of Regency, and the the two legislative chambers were dissolved; and the Ministers of Louis who were in office on the 1st of March, were restored to their respective functions.

It will be recollected that the duke of WELLINGTON, in a dispatch dated June 29th, stated the British loss in killed, wounded and missing, in the battles of the 16th, 17th and 18th at 12 or 13,000. In a subsequent dispatch he gives the following official returns, which make their loss much less than his lordship had supposed:

Officers killed 103; non-commissioned 102; rank and file 1549; officers wounded 436; non-commissioned 333; rank and file 5123; officers missing 12; non-commissioned 17; rank and file 778—Grand total 8458.

The celebrated Mr. WHITBREAD, the leader of the opposition in the British parliament, expired on the 6th of July, at his house in Dover street. The Courier of the same day states, that his death was occasioned by apoplexy; but BELL'S Weekly Messenger of a subsequent date ascribes it to an act of suicide in a fit of insanity.

From the London Gazette, July 11.
WAR DEPARTMENT.
DOWNING STREET, JULY 11.

A dispatch of which the following is a copy, was this day received from field marshal the duke of WELLINGTON, K. G. addressed to earl Bathurst.

Paris, July 8, 1815.

My Lord—In consequence of the convention with the enemy, of which I transmitted your lordship a copy, in my dispatch of the 4th, the troops under my command and that of marshal BLUCHER, occupied the barriers of Paris on the 6th, and entered the city yesterday; which has ever since been perfectly quiet.

The King of France entered Paris this day.

I have the honor to be, &c.

WELLINGTON.

LONDON, JULY 11.

We yesterday received a complete series of the different Paris papers up to Friday last inclusive. The expiring faction, after debating and wrangling to the last moment, have all dispersed, and the leaders have fled in different directions, some of them across the Loire with the retreating army; Carnot is, we believe, among this number. Others to different ports, particularly Rochefort, from which two frigates sailed on the 2d July, having on board some distinguished passengers; among these it is said are BONAPARTE and Marshal NEY.

PARIS, JULY 7.

The Commission has made known to the King, through the organ of its President, that it has just dissolved itself.

The Peers and the Representatives, imposed by the late government, have received on this subject a notification.

The King will enter Paris to-morrow, about 3 in the afternoon. His Majesty will alight at the Thuilleries.

ORDONNANCE OF THE KING.

LOUIS, by the Grace of God, King of France and Navarre, to all those to whom these presents shall come, health:

Considering the necessity of restoring in their functions the individuals who have been removed by violence since the 20th March last, we have ordered and do order what follows:

Art. 1. The functionaries of the Administrative and Judicial Order, the Commanders and Officers of the National Guard, who were in active service on the 1st of March last, shall resume their functions forthwith.

Art. 2. Our Ministers are charged each in what concerns him with the execution of the present Ordonnance.

Given at St. Dennis, 7th July, 1815, and the 21st of our Reign.

(Signed) LOUIS.

By the King,
Prince de TALLEYRAND.

Another decree restores the command of the National Guard of Paris to Lieut. Gen. Count DESOLLES, under the orders of Monsieur.

ORDER OF THE DAY.

PARIS, JULY 8, 1815.

The general commanding in chief the national guard of Paris, in execution of an ordonnance of the King, dated July 7, has resumed his functions, and congratulates himself upon again finding the national guard faithful to the object of its institution, and devoted without reserve to the service of order and security confided to it.

Amidst the military & political events which have agitated men's minds, the national guards has never forgotten that its first duty towards its prince and country was the preservation of the capital, and the maintenance of public order.—This spirit ought more than ever to animate the guard. The union of Frenchmen can alone be the safety of France. But to obtain it there must succeed to the spirit of party, which has caused so many evils, that enlightened patriotism, which, in difficult crises, reconciles citizens and save states.

(Signed) Count DESOLLES.

PARIS, JULY 8.

We are informed that the King has appointed prince Talleyrand minister of foreign affairs, and president of the council of ministers; the duke of Otranto minister of the interior; the duke Richelieu, minister of the marine; the duke of Feltre minister of war; baron Louis provisional minister of the finances: count Tollendal minister of the household; M. Laine, vice chancellor and keeper of the seals: M. Ambray honorary chancellor, and M. —— minister of police.

A corps of from 40 to 50,000 allied troops, cavalry, infantry and artillery, entered yesterday. The English cavalry and artillery were remarkable for the beauty of their horses. Some English corps are encamped in the Champs Elysees. Yesterday evening some pieces of cannon secured by the Prussians were placed on the bridges.

The Emperors of Russia and Austria, and the King of Prussia, will arrive in Paris this evening.

But where is BONAPARTE all this while? He hopes to make his escape during all this bustle and confusion. On the 25th of last month he applied to the provisional government for 2 frigates, which were granted him, and he solicited passports for America from the duke of WELLINGTON. His Grace's answer was that he had no authority whatever from his government to give an answer whatever to that demand. No passports were of course granted him. Six carriages and six, heavily laden, were sent off to Rochefort. His suit went in them while he actually proceeded in the common diligence from Paris to Rochefort. It is given out that he embarked there on board the frigates.

Yesterday the King, surrounded by the marshals and dukes of Tarentum, (Macdonald,) Belluno, (Victor) Ragusa, (Marmont,) Feltra, (Clark,) Gen Maison, &c. said to the detachment of national guards, who had hurried to St. Dennis to meet his majesty—"My friend I bring you back your former general. I am again in the midst of you. Judge what ought to be the joy of a father, on finding himself once more in the midst of his children. I thank you for your sentiments. Return to Paris, and communicate to your fellow citizens what I feel for them. I shall speedily be with my good people of Paris, and bring them once more peace and happiness."

Marshal Ney has left Paris. It is said he is gone to the United States of America.

Marshal Soult has gone to his estate at St. Amaud.

Accounts have been received from Carthagena of the defeat of the Algerine fleet by the American squadron under Commodore Decatur. The action, which took place on the 20th June, lasted two hours. The Algerine frigate Mezoura, 40 guns, is taken and carried into Carthagena. She was commanded by the Admiral of Algiers, who was killed. Next morning, between 1 and 2 o'clock, another Algerine frigate was driven on shore by the Americans, near St. Xavier, 3 leagues to the east of Carthagena. The crew escaped on shore and were pursued by the Spanish peasants, who had taken some of them when the accounts came away. A corvette was chased, and would probably be taken.

Supplement to the London Gazette. Foreign Office, July 5.

A dispatch, of which the following is an extract, has been received at this office:—

Extract of a Dispatch from W. A. Court, Esq. Minister Plenipotentiary to the King of the Two Sicilies, to Viscount Castlereagh, dated, Naples, June 17. 1815.

I have the satisfaction to inform your Lordship, that his Sicilian Majesty made this day his public entry into his capital, after an absence of nine years. The crowd that thronged the road all the way from Portici was immence, and nothing could exceed the enthusiasm of the people on the appearance of their legitimate Monarch. It was impossible to mistake the public feeling upon this occasion.

The theatrical processions of Murat drew crowds, as I am told, of curious spectators but curiosity was not the inducement here: in every countenance might be read the honest expression of heartfelt joy, at the return of a beloved and native Sovereign. His Majesty was received, on his arrival at the palace, by all the principal Nobility of the country, the greater majority of whom appeared to partake of the enthusiasm which had been previously demonstrated by the lower classes. In fact, never was national joy so unequivocally and so universally displayed.

BRUSSELS, July 1.

The King of France has left Cambray to repair to Compeigne; before he departed he addressed to the French nation the following

PROCLAMATION.

THE KING TO THE FRENCH PEOPLE.

The gates of my kingdom at last open before me; I hasten to bring back my misled subjects, to mitigate the calamities which I had wished to prevent, to place myself a second time between the allied and the French armies, in the hope that the feelings of consideration of which I may be the object may tend to their preservation. This is the only way in which I have wished to take part in the war. I have not permitted any prince of my family to appear in foreign ranks, and have restrained the courage of those of my servants who had been able to range themselves around me.

Returned to the soil of my country, I take pleasure in speaking confidence to my people. When I first reappeared among you, I found men's minds agitated and heated by conflicting passions. My views encountered on every side nothing but difficulties and obstacles. My government was liable to commit errors; perhaps it did commit them. There are times when the purest intentions are insufficient to direct, or sometimes they even mislead.

Experience alone could teach: it shall not be lost. All that can save France is my wish.

My subjects have learned by cruel trials, that the principle of the legitimacy of Sovereigns is one of the fundamental bases of social order—the only one upon which amidst a great nation, a wise and well ordered liberty can be established. This doctrine has just been proclaimed as that of all Europe. I had previously consecrated it by my charter, and I claim to add to that charter all the guarantees which can secure the benefits of it.

The unity of ministry is the strongest that I can offer. I mean that it should exist, and that the frank and firm march of my Council should guarantee all interests & calm all inquietudes.

Some have talked latterly of the restoration of tythes and feudal rights, This fable, invented by the common enemy, does not require confutation. It will not be expected that the King should stop to refute calumnies and lies; the success of the treason has too clearly indicated their source. If the purchasers of national property have felt alarm, the charter should suffice to re-assure them. Did I not myself propose to the Chambers, and cause to be executed, sales of such property? This proof of my sincerity is unanswerable. In these latter times, my subjects of all classes have given me equal proof of love and fidelity. I wish them to know how sensibly I feel them, and that it is from among all Frenchmen I shall delight to choose those who are to approach my person and my family. I wish to exclude from my presence none but those whose celebrity is matter of grief to France, and of horror to Europe. In the plot which they hatched, I perceive many of my subjects misled, and some guilty.

I promise—I who never promised in vain, (all Europe who knows it)—to pardon all misled Frenchmen, all that has passed since the day when I quitted Lille, amidst so many tears, up to the day when I re-entered Cambrai, amidst so many acclamations.

But the blood of my people has flowed, in consequence of a treason of which the annals of the world present no example. That treason has summoned foreigners into the heart of France. Every day reveals to me a new disaster. I owe it, then, to the dignity of my Crown, to the interest of my people, to the repose of Europe, to except from pardon the instigators and authors of this plot. They shall be designated to the vengeance of the laws by the two Chambers which I propose forthwith to assemble.

FRENCHMEN! Such are the sentiments which he brings among you, whom time has not been able to change, nor calamities fatigue, nor injustice made to stoop. The King, whose fathers reigned for 8 centuries over your's, returns to consecrate the remainder of his days in defending and consoling you.

Given at Cambrai, this 28th of June, in the year of our lord 1815, and of our reign the 21st.

To the ELECTORS of Allegheny County.

HIS Imperial Majesty Tibbette, Emperor of the Slavers and Autocrat of the West, tired of exercising Imperial sovereignty, and embracing the Republican faith, descends from the Throne he has so long honoured with his august presence, and offers his services to his Republican Brethren as a Candidate for the Legislature. By birth and education a Republican, and from his long habits of Imperial Legislation he feels particularly qualified at this important juncture of affairs, to mend the constitution of the country, regulate the currency & banks of the state, reform the penal code, reduce the expence of government, abolish unnecessary taxes, and to diffuse by his august presence that respect in the legislative body which has been long wanted. Penitentiaries, work houses, stocks and whipping posts will be established—in place of the present system of fines and forfeitures. And he will so regulate affairs, that after his term of service expires, he will remount the Throne with increased respectability and splendor.

To our Subscribers.

Twenty-nine years have now elapsed since the first publication of the Pittsburgh Gazette in this town. We have, during that time, endeavoured faithfully to discharge our duty to our Subscribers. To what is due ourselves, we must now recur. While, therefore, we make our acknowledgments to those who have punctually discharged their subscriptions, we are obliged to bring to the recollection of others that they are still in arrear. In many cases, we are satisfied, that this arises from inadvertence, supposing that small sums for which they are in arrear can be of no material importance, and that it is better to permit it to arise to a greater amount, when the payment will be a real benefit. It is true, that the amount which any one owes is but small—but as small streams compose rivers, so very many of these small sums make a great amount. We therefore most respectfully, but most earnestly request those of our Subscribers in arrear to forward the amount to us with as little delay as possible.

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, in and by an Act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, entitled "An Act to regulate the General Elections within this Commonwealth," it is enjoined on me to give public notice of such Election to be held, and to enumerate in such notice what officers are to be elected, I, WILLIAM WOODS, Sheriff of the County of Allegheny, do therefore make known and give this public notice to the Electors of the said County of Allegheny, that a General Election will be held in the said County on the Second Tuesday of October next, at the several Election Districts, to wit:

The Electors of the Borough of Pittsburgh to meet at the Court House—and the Electors of the following described parts of the Borough of Pittsburgh and Pitt Township, in the County of Allegheny, shall be a separate Election District, to wit: beginning on the Monongahela River on the east side of Wood Street in the said Borough, and running thence by the east side of Wood Street to the east side of Liberty Street; thence by the same to the east side of Washington Street, being the Borough line; thence by the same to the Allegheny River; thence up the said River to the mouth of the Two Mile Run; thence up the said Run by Roup's Mill, to Henry Fulton's Farm House; thence a straight line to William Knox's Farm House, on the Four Mile Run, including the two last mentioned places; thence down the said Four Mile Run to the Monongahela River; thence down the same to the place of beginning—and the Electors of the said District shall hold their General Elections at the Court House in the said Borough of Pittsburgh.

The Electors of Pitt Township to meet at the house of Thomas Wilson, in said Township.

The Electors of Plumb Township to meet at the house of John Little, in said Township.

The Electors of Versailles Township to meet at the house of William Shaw, in said Township.

The Electors of Elizabeth township to meet at the house of John Walker, in Elizabethtown in said Township.

The Electors of Mifflin Township to meet at the house of William Walker, in said Township.

The Electors of St. Clair Township, to meet at the house of Thomas M'Culley, in said Township.

The Electors of Fayette Township to meet at the house of Matthew M'Coy, in Noblestown, in said Township.

The Electors of Robinson Township to meet at the house of William Marks in said Township.

The Electors of Moon Township to meet at the house of Margery Byers, in said Township.

The Electors of Ohio Township to meet at the house of John Moore, in said Township.

The Electors of Ross Township to meet at the house of Samuel Allen, in said Township.

The Electors of Pine Township to meet at the house of William Cochran, in said Township.

The Electors of Deer Township to meet at the house of Felix Negley, in said Township.

The Electors of Indiana Township to meet at the house of Henry Strome in said Township.

At which time and places the qualified Electors as aforesaid, will elect by ballot

One person, in conjunction with Armstrong, Beaver and Butler Counties, as Senator.

Four Members of the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in conjunction with Butler County.

One person for Commissioner, for Allegheny County.

One person for Coroner for Allegheny County.

One person for Auditor for Allegheny County.

And in and by an Act of the General Assembly of this State, passed the 17th day of March 1800, it is directed that the Inspectors of the said General Election shall be chosen by ballot, on the Friday next preceding the first Tuesday in October, at the several Election Districts, and the election of such Inspectors shall be held by the respective Constables, who are required to give at least one week's notice of such Election, assisted by two qualified citizens, chosen by such citizens qualified to vote, as shall then be present: and the Inspectors chosen are required to be at the places of their Districts on the day of the General Election aforesaid, at nine o'clock in the morning, to do and perform the duties required of them.

And the Return Judges of the respective Districts aforesaid, are required to meet at the Court House, in the Borough of Pittsburgh, on the Friday next after the said second Tuesday in October next, then and there to perform those duties required of them by law.

Given under my hand at Pittsburgh, this 1st day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and the fortieth year of the Independence of the United States.

WILLIAM WOODS, Sheriff.

DOCTOR CHISHOLM'S

Anti-Bilious Pills,

Of a quality superior to any thing of the kind ever offered as a GENERAL MEDICINE, in this Country.

NOW prepared from a recipe [illegible] the celebrated Dr. Chisholm, who, [illegible] a long residence in the West-India Islands, has been enabled to favor the world with the most complete history, and most approved methods of curing all the BILIOUS DISEASES of those warm climates.

This extraordinary Medicine, which now for the first time is finding its way into general practice, has properties in the highest degree superior to the mercurial nostrums so frequently recommended by the name of Anti-Bilious Pills. The extraordinary powers of this medicine as a solvent and evacuent of Bile, is without example; never producing debility or injuring the health, in the smallest degree, of the most delicate child or weakly female:

The BILIOUS HEAD-ACHE, so much complained of in this country, and in the neighbourhood of rivers, is often removed by a single dose, which, to a strong man, is only five pills, and to a weakly woman, three. The same dose will generally remove the most excruciating pains of the cholic, like a charm, by causing the bile to pass downwards in the course of an hour or two.

Two or three Pills taken an hour before dinner, and repeated every third day, will effectually remove those diseases arising from flatulency and indigestion, and by persevering in the use of them for a considerable time, the appetite will be improved, and strength and vigor will return.

Two Pills taken at bed time, with a cup of penny-royal tea, and repeated every second night, will effectually remove Rheumatic pains wherever seated.

A single Pill, taken every fourth hour with a cup of flaxseed tea, will cure Pleurisy, promote expectoration, and relieve coughs and colds.

In CONSUMPTIVE CASES and DISEASES OF THE LIVER, no medicine ever yet discovered, has been known to perform such cures. Two Pills taken every third morning, will be found sufficient, unless costiveness prevails; in which case the dose may be increased according to the strength or constitution.

The Dysentery, Croup, and Summer Complaint on children, are soon relieved by a few doses. A single Pill to a child of 6 years old, and the dose increased according to their strength and age.

In Asthmatic or Phthisical cases, where the laborious breathing and great oppression, with faintings, are fast sinking the patient to the brink of the grave, a few Pills, taking one every hour, with fennel or pepper-mint tea, will often enable the patient to walk about in a few hours.

The above valuable Medicine is Sold ONLY in Pittsburgh, by

DOCTOR HANDY'S

WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES.

A safe and efficacious medicine for destroying and bringing away WORMS.

MAY be used with safety by children of any age, or as common physic by the most delicate constitution, in any climate, without restraint of diet, or the smallest danger from cold. It may be given with advantage after the small-pox or measles; or as a family medicine, in any case where physic is necessary.—The most frequent seat of worms in the human body, is the intestinal tube; but occasionally they have been found in almost every other part of the body.

Some very extraordinary cases of Worms, of an unusual form and appearance, being brought away by these Lozenges, have been made public in England, where the rapid sale of the medicine has exceeded any thing of the kind ever known before; and has also proved, to a demonstration, its approved superiority, as an atheiminthick, to the numerous puffed-up, useless nostrums, which are daily advertised in the newspapers.

A single dose of this valuable medicine has often been known to remove half a pot full of the Teres or Round Worms.

A few doses are generally sufficient to remove the Ascarides, a small white worm, the seat of which is either the stomach or rectum.

Even the Tape Worm, at all times the most difficult to destroy, may, by persevering in the frequent use of this medicine, be totally removed in the course of a few weeks.

To select cases, with the names of people who are not known here, and living at a great distance, would be useless, and take up too much of the readers time. We shall therefore only observe, for the benefit of those who are acquainted with the symptoms of worms, that they are known or suspected to exist by a pain in the stomach, attended with a sudden depression of spirits before eating; at other times the belly is hard, painful and distended with wind—costiveness, head ache, and trembling of the limbs, with a sense of something rising in the throat—pale complexion and emaciated body, with weakness and irregular appetite—convulsive, epileptic or falling fits—pains in the back and side, and frequent itching of the nose, and sometimes of the anus. The above and a long train of afflicting diseases may all be occasioned by worms, which are much oftener the cause of death than is commonly believed.

The above Valuable MEDICINE, is sold, ONLY, by

WILLIAM NEWMAN,
JAMES ESSEX,
THOMAS WILLIAMS.

Cincinnati, May 18, 1815. 6m.

Messrs. Bosler & Co.

HAVE JUST RECEIVED,

From Lee's Patent and Family Medicine Store, New-York, a fresh supply of the following

Genuine Medicines.

A Sovereign Remedy for Colds, Obstinate Coughs, Asthmas, Sore Throats, and approaching Consumptions, and most Disorders of the Breast and Lungs.

THE celebrity acquired by this Medicine through the United States, for speedily removing coughs, colds, hoarseness, &c. exceeds all former examples. The following recommendation, selected from a very numerous list, will fully confirm what has been said of its unparalelled excellence.

"To H. LEE

"Being desirous to make public, for the good of others, the excellent qualities of HAMILTON'S ELIXIR, prepared by the late Mr. Lee, I have sent you the following account of the benefit I have received from it, which I hope will induce others to give it a trial. In consequence of a bruise on the breast, received from a fall, my health grew bad, my breath being difficult, and frequently I have had suddenly to rise up in my bed, with all the horrors of immediate suffocation. Add to these, constant pain in my breast, a cough, a great loss of flesh and strength, and you may conceive that my symptoms indicated an approaching consumption. The advice of a most eminent physician was resorted to, and afterwards a second was called in, but without giving me any relief. Another physician who knew me, and the circumstances of my case, advised me to give "Hamilton's Elixir" a trial, saying he had used it in his practice, and always found it to do much good. A bottle was procured, and I found relief before I had taken half of it. I continued to use it, and was soon strong enough to attend to business. On taking cold, some of my former symptoms returned, but are always removed by a dose or two of the Elixir.

"GEORGE BRENER, Jr.

"No. 21, Budd Street, Philadelphia."

HAMILTON'S ELIXIR,

Will prove a valuable acquisition to public speakers, who may be subject to temporary hoarseness and thickness of speech. In long confirmed asthmatic complaints where a cure can scarcely be expected, this medicine affords immediate relief, moderating the fits of coughing, and rendering their recurrence less frequent. On children afflicted with the hooping cough, the like beneficial effects may confidently be expected.

Hamilton's Worm Lozenges.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar title, so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary, a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent, and is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the tenderest infant of a week old, should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels, of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms, and many fatal disorders.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of

Nervous Disorders
Consumptions
Lowness of Spirits
Loss of Appetite
Impurity of Blood
Hysterical Affections
Inward Weaknesses
Violent cramps in the stomach and back
Indigestion
Melancholy
Gout in the Stomach
Pains in the Limbs
Relaxations, &c.

HAMILTON'S GENUINE ESSENCE & EXTRACT OF MUSTARD.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Rheumatic Gout, Palsy, Lumbago, Numbness, White Swelling, Chilblains, Bruises and Sprains, and pain in the Face and Neck.

This valuable remedy is prepared both in a fluid state and in pills, and thus excellently adapted for external and internal use.

ITCH CURED BY ONCE USING. LEE'S SOVEREIGN OINTMENT

The proprietor informs those persons and families who are suffering under this disease (against the infection of which no person is safe) that if this ointment is used at night on going to bed, it never fails to perform a cure by the following morning, as thousands who have used it during the last 10 years can testify. The peculiar excellences of this infallible remedy for the ITCH, over every other, are the certainty of a cure by a single application; the ingredients being so innocent as to be applied with perfect safety to the tenderest infant, and its being not only free from any offensive smell, but equally agreeable with the most pleasant pomatum.

HAHN'S

True and Genuine German Corn Plaister.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving pain.

THE RESTORATIVE POWDER,

For the Teeth and Gums.

HAHN'S

Genuine Eye Water.

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the Eyes.

HAHN'S

ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS.

Celebrated for the mildness of their operation for being the best known remedy for cleansing the stomach and bowels.

TOOTH ACHE DROPS.

The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

INFALLIBLE AGUE AND FEVER DROPS,

For the cure of Agues, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers.

A multitude of attested cures performed by the above medicines, may be seen at the place of Sale.

Purchasers are requested to remember that an engraved label with the signature of HANNAH LEE, widow of the late Richard Lee, Jr. is affixed to each of the genuine Medicines.

PITTSBURGH Manhattan School,

FOR

YOUNG LADIES & GENTLEMEN.

MR. LOOMIS, respectfully returns thanks to his patrons for their liberal patronage since the commencement of his School in this place, and informs them and the public that he continues to teach both sexes Reading, Penmanship analytically, English Grammar, English Composition, Geography, with the use of the Globes and Maps, Drawing of Maps, Book-keeping, the Languages, &c.

The system of Education adopted in this School, will be that which is pursued in the celebrated Manhattan School, in the city of New-York, conducted by Mr. A. Picket, its successful founder; and which is acknowledged by men of the first literary reputation to be one of the best conducted Schools, in that city or in the United States. Here, about five hundred children of both sexes, comprising some of the best families in the city, constantly attend and are taught in such a manner as does the greatest honor to the teacher, and results in the happiest consequence to the pupils. It is of the utmost importance to teach children in such a manner that they will understand what they learn, and know how to apply it to the active pursuits of life. To give them words without accustoming them to attach some definite meaning to them, is, like blindfolding a man and commanding him to find a certain object; every effort leads him astray and renders him more uncertain of its attainment, so children if their minds are burdened with knowledge without understanding, find themselves uninterested in the pursuit, of course their progress in acquiring it will be but small: they must be brought to love learning if we would expect ever to teach them to good purpose, for the mind always eagerly embraces that which it previously loves.

In this School every requisite attention will be paid to the learning and amiable deportment of the pupils, and no labour will be thought too arduous to form the young mind for future usefulness and respectability in society. The education of youth is difficult and requires unwearied attention and experience, for no man is born a teacher, it is an occupation which requires many years practice to become a proficient in the business. To his many years experience in teaching an extensive School and unwearied diligence, the subscriber looks for public patronage, pledging himself to a conscientious discharge of the duties incumbent on a teacher, he with confidence solicits the patronage of the public.

For terms of Tuition, References, &c. please to apply at the School Room, over Mr THOMAS ALGEO's Store, Market Street.

N. B. Young Ladies will be taught plain and ornamental Needle Work, in a separate apartment, by Mrs. Loomis.

Morning Tuition will commence on the 1st of May, for Penmanship, from 6 to 8 o'clock, at Six Dollars a quarter, payable in advance.
